Representation dated 11.8.49 from Sri S.G. Narasimhaiya and Sri M. Malleshaiya, Asst. Secys to Govt, requesting grant of duty allowance for the period they work as Special Duty officers in connection with the R.A. Budget session 1949.

Submitted

Sri. S.G. Narasimhaiya was on Special duty from 1.5.49 to 30.5.49 and Sri. M. Malleshaiyya was on Special duty from 1.6.49 to 30.6.49 when the former proceeded on privilege leave.

2 In this connection it is submitted that any duty allowance or conveyance allowance ~~is~~ to be paid to the Special duty officers has not been fixed but on previous occasions Sri B. Narayanaswamy and Sri P. Honnappa were paid conveyance allowance and deputation allowance Rs 125/- p.m. and Rs 60/ p.m. respectively for the period they were on Special duties (Vide G.O. Nos. 3636/C.B. 229-48-1 dated 29.11.48 and G.O.No. 6842/C.B. 363-48-1 dated 24.2.1949)

3 The reasons for granting deputation allowance of Rs 60/ p.m. to Sri. P. Honnappa for the period he was on Special duty is that he was allowed to make use of a taxi, the cost of petrol to which was met by Govt, during the period of Special duty and that he was placed on Spl duty as a whole-time officer.

In the case of Spl. D. Narayanaswamy he was not allowed to use taxi and he had to spend every day Rs 5 or 6 for the cost of petrol during the period of Spl duty in connection with the Constituent Assembly meeting and that he was placed on Spl duty in addition to his duties as Registrar Co. Tr. S.

5. A Govt Van was placed at the disposal of the Special duty officers during period of special duty in connection with the R. A. Budget 1949

6 Under the circumstances the amount of allowance payable to the Special duty officers is for orders.

The allowance sanctioned by 17/8/49. to the Spl. Duty officers has not been uniform. Sri B. Narayanaswamy was granted a conveyance allowance of Rs 125/- pm inclusive of the conveyance allowance of Rs 35/- pm and in addition to the duty allowance of Rs 50/- pm which he was getting as Registrar, Gen and Rev. Secy. He was not allowed the use of a taxi or a Govt Conveyance. Sri P. Hanumappa was allowed a deputation allowance at the rate of Rs 60/- pm for a period of four months. But he was permitted to engage a taxi for the work

8 In the present case the Govt Van was made available for use during the period of spl duty. Sri S. G. Narasimhaiya was not in receipt of any allowance and Sri H Mallesharyya is drawing an allowance of Rs 50/- pm just as other Asst Comrs who are posted as Asst Secretaries to Govt and one is also getting another allowance of Rs 50/- pm as Secy of the Scientific and Industrial Research Committee. He has drawn these two allowances &

9 The good work done by these two officers as Spl Duty officers has been placed on record In the last para of the representation it is stated that the duty allowance sanctioned to the officials attached (A) the spl. duty office in G.O. No. Fl. 506-7/SHA. 25-49-1 dated 6-8-49 will work out to Rs 150/- each in the case of those who worked throughout the period of Special duty i.e. from 1-5-49 to 30-5-49.

10 In the circumstances the spl. duty officers may have to be given an allowance more than what the officials got. The amount of allowance to be given is for orders.

11 Is it true the officials would be drawing a daily rate of Rs 2/8/- which would amount to Rs 75/- a month? In view of the fact that the work was not long drawn out this time but was business like and wound up as soon as it was ever possible an advce of Rs 100/- pm. may be issued to the two offices, for the period each of them worked

13 Is this Council matter? On the previous occasion this question was not treated as Council matter.

14 Sri Honnappa was granted a deputation allowance of Rs 60/- pm. which is 1/5 of Rs 300/- the minimum pay of an Asst Secy to Govt which is covered by the M.S.R. A Conveyance allowance of Rs 125/- pm. was sanctioned to Sri B. Narayana Swamy exclusive of the CA. of Rs 35/- pm which he was drawing as Regr. of Govt Rev. Sects

16. The present proposal is to grant an allowance at the rate of Rs 100/pm to the two Spl. duty officers and this would appear to be in the nature of a duty allowance. Strictly speaking this would be a Council matter. In view of the fact however that the total expenditure involved may not exceed about Rs 200/- it is perhaps not necessary to treat it as such.

Subject: Allowance to Special Duty Officers - R.A. Budget Session, 1949.

Sri. S.G. Narasimhaiya was appointed as the Special Duty Officer for the Budget Session of the Representative Assembly in G.O.No. R.L.2345-55/R.A. 53-48-1 dated the 27th April 1949. He entered upon his duties in the forenoon of 1-5-1949 but from 30-5-1949 afternoon he proceeded on Privilege leave and Sri. M. Malleshayya was appointed instead, in G.O.No. R.L. 2623-25/R.A. 53-48-4 dated the 1st June 1949.

As per orders of the Chief Secretary the Special Duty Office was treated as wound up on the evening of 30-6-1949. On this basis each of the two Special Duty Officers may be taken as having worked as such for about a month, even though some work pertaining to that Office is still being attended to, off and on, in addition to the normal duties of an Assistant Secretary to Government, by Sri. M. Malleshayya (whenever necessary in consultation with Sri.S.G.Narasimhaiya).

Now that all the work has been practically wound up, and detailed accounts relating to the advances drawn have also been furnished to the Comptroller, the question of sanctioning suitable allowances to the two Special Duty Officers may perhaps be taken into consideration. There has been no uniformity of practice in the past as to the nature or the amount of the allowance Sometimes a Duty Allowance and at others a Conveyance Allowance was sanctioned, and in one case, (e.g., Budget Session of 1946-47) a Conveyance Allowance of Rs.125/- in addition to a Duty Allowance (drawn as Registrar of the Secretariat) was sanctioned to the then Special Duty Officer.

It may perhaps be brought to notice that Special Duty this time was rendered particularly difficult by the circumstance that the period synchronised with one of the most important Racing Seasons, and it was an extremely hard job to fix up contractors for putting up sheds, supplying furniture, running canteens, etc. Notwithstanding this and other difficulties and handicaps the work this time was done with greater speed and satisfaction to all concerned and at less cost to Government than in previous years. The two Officers are grateful for the very appreciative terms in which their work has been recognised by the higher authorities.

In respect of the officials attached to the Special Duty Office, orders are under issue sanctioning them Duty Allowance at Rs.2-8-0 per day (apart from the lunch allowance) so that such of them as worked throughout the period of Special Duty, will draw nearly Rs.150/- each. In this view, the amount of Duty Allowance that may be sanctioned to each of the Special Duty Officers this time is for kind consideration and orders.
